Working for Peace
through the Arts

THE GRAHAM F. SMITH PEACE FOUNDATION INCORPORATED CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS 2017

The Graham F. Smith Peace Foundation is now accepting applications for the 2017 Annual Peace Grant. Applications are invited from individuals and community organisations within Australia for arts projects that address the aims of the Peace Foundation – promoting peace, social justice, and care for the environment.

The Peace Foundation is offering one major grant of $10,000.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE 5 PM MONDAY 16TH OCTOBER 2017

The Graham F. Smith Peace Foundation is a grassroots non-profit organisation established in 1989 to promote peace through literature, music, performing arts, visual arts, craft, design, film, video, television, radio, community arts, Aboriginal arts and movable cultural heritage that relate to human rights, social justice and environmental sustainability.

Criteria:

The Foundation supports arts projects that focus on areas including:

- ❖ Promote or educate the public on peace and justice at family, community and international level;
- ❖ Promote and educate the public on the reduction of injustice, racial tension, oppression and discrimination;
- ❖ Increase the understanding and cooperation between political, racial and ethnic groups;
- ❖ Support the rights of indigenous peoples to economic self-determination;
- ❖ Promote and educate the public on the care of the environment;
- ❖ Support oppressed people to control the environment for their daily needs;
- ❖ Promote and educate the public on ecological sustainable development.

Who Can Apply:

Applications will be accepted from individuals and community organisations within Australia that propose art projects that can demonstrate:

- ❖ Aims compatible with the Peace Foundation's vision – 'Working for Peace through the Arts',
- ❖ Accord with one or more of the criteria listed above;
- ❖ That funds will be used to support artists to create new work and may also

- ❖ Have the potential to touch many people – not only preach to the converted;
- ❖ The process of the project be equally as important as the outcome;
- ❖ Include the possibility of working collaboratively with other individuals/groups/organisations;
- ❖ Include an education component;
- ❖ Involve a process of documentation.

What to Submit:

Applications must include the following:

1. Application Form Cover Page
2. One-page description of the project including a draft timeline.
3. One-page description of how the project is compatible with the Peace Foundation's vision and addresses one or more of the criteria
4. Detailed Budget

You may also include one or more of the following support material items:

1. A one-page summary of information about the artist(s)
2. A one-page letter of support from a community member or partner involved in your project.
3. A link to a website that contains examples of your work. Should this not be possible, please email us at contact@artspeacefoundation.org or telephone (08) 8267 3915 to organise an alternative arrangement for you to present examples of your work to the committee.

IMPORTANT: Please do not send originals as support material will not be returned.

Selection Process:

The grant assessment committee, made up of independent artists, will assess the applications against the criteria above and make a recommendation to the Peace Foundation Board.

A letter confirming the agreement between the winner and the Peace Foundation will be prepared outlining responsibilities of both parties, including the winner's responsibility for promoting the Peace Foundation at their project event or in their publication.

All applicants will be notified of the outcome of their application prior to the announcement of the Peace Foundation's decision at the annual Peace Foundation dinner on November 11th 2017.

The Foundation may choose not to fund any of the submissions presented in a particular year.
